

Q. No. 2 Part (I)

Title: Youth and Islam

SUMMARY

Youth means the youngsters of a country or area, they are always charged with energy and passion for life. Islam has attached much importance to youth. The Holy Prophet (S.A.W) always regarded the opinions of youth, he preferred Osama bin Zaid over respected elders. Rasool (S.A.W) always respected the opinion of youth and Rasool S.A.W was himself the example of dignity, honesty nobility of soul and purity of heart, in this way he set an example for youth to follow. The youth should follow the teachings of Rasool (S.A.W) so that they can lead a peaceful life and prosper in every aspect of their lives, only by following the footsteps of Rasool (S.A.W) youth can play its role for personal and social welfare.

“Youth of today are leaders of tomorrow.”

Q. No. 2 Part (II) Rasool (S.A.W) confidence in youth:

The Rasool (S.A.W) had a high esteem and regard for youth. He reposed a strong confidence in them and preferred their opinion moreover he also respected their advice. In the preparation for battle of Uhud, he reposed full confidence in youth and preferred their opinion to face the enemy in an open field, against his will because he didn't want to face the enemy in an open field but inspite of this he respected their opinion, likewise he preferred Osama bin Zahid over respected elders to lead military expedition to avenge upon the losses of Muslim army.

Q. No. 2 Part (III) Rasool (S.A.W) as Role Model:

Rasool (S.A.W) presented himself as role model for the youth, he never indulged himself in the vices, he was very noble and possessed nobility of soul and purity of heart. He was the a living embodiment of honesty, dignity, self-esteem and honour. Due to these attributes he earned the titles of Al-Amin and Al-Sadiq. Now it is time for youth to follow the footsteps and teachings of Rasool (S.A.W) so as to succeed in various aspects of life.

Q. No. 2 Part (iv)

Rasool (S.A.W) Youth :

Rasool (S.A.W) spent his youth in a dignified way. He was very noble and never indulged himself in the vices that were prevalent in those days. During his youth, he possessed nobility of soul, purity of heart and adhered himself to honesty, dignity, honour and greater self esteem. By adopting these attributes he presented himself as sole model for the entire world.

Q. No. 2 Part (v)

Youth and Rasool (S.A.W) as role model:

The youth should take Rasool (S.A.W) as sole model because he was an embodiment of honesty, dignity, honour, self-esteem and presented himself as sole model for the rest of humanity. By following the teachings of Rasool (S.A.W) youth can use their abilities for personal and social welfare, they can turn into a good human being, can succeed in all aspects of life but all this is possible only if they following the teachings of Rasool (S.A.W).

Q. No. 2 Part (vi)

Al-Sadiq and Al-Amin:

Rasool (S.A.W) never indulged himself in vices, he always speak truth and stands with right moreover he always protected the things which people gave him, due to this attribute the disbelievers or nonbelievers also handed their precious things to Rasool (S.A.W) because they knew he was a noble person and would always protect their things. The attributes of Rasool (S.A.W) made him earn the titles of Al-Sadiq (one who speaks truth) and Al-Amin (one who protects).

Q. No. 3 (a)

(i)

"Pitch and Toss and heap of winnings":

It means that if a person can make a pile of his achievements and risk it on turn of pitch and toss, means can take risk in his life he would then succeed.

Pitch and toss is a game and winnings mean the money won in a game.

(ii)

Rhyme scheme of stanza is:

ABABCDCD

(iii)

Poetic devices used in stanza:

Assonance is used in;
word about your loss.

(o) is repeated.

Alliteration is in will which.

Personification and synecdoche is used in;

force your heart and nerve and sinew.

Enjambment in first line and third as well.

Q. No. 3 (b)

Plot:

Plot means an orderly organization of events of a narrative under the principle of cause and effect. The plot of Lord of Flies is simple. It has clear beginning, exciting middle and a dramatic end. The story is set on an uninhabited Island. This is the beginning of plot. Rising action pops up when the tension and conflict builds out between Ralph's democratic and Jack's arrogant outlook. Conflict is order vs savagery. Climax of the combat between these forces is the Simon's death at the hand of boys. Falling action takes place when the boys abandon Ralph and Piggy and transcend further into savagery. In the resolution, Ralph runs and encounters the naval officer and thus is rescued by the British naval officer.

- 1 Beginning
- 2 Rising action
- 3 Climax
- 4 Falling Action
- 5 Resolution

In start, information is provided about the character, background etc.

Q. No. 3 (b) In rising action, the story is moving towards climax.

Climax is the peak point in a plot.

In anti-climax or falling action the story moves towards resolution.

In resolution, we come to know the results.

Essay

Corruption

Today, when man has touched the surface of the moon and world has turned into a global village, corruption has become a dangerous problem. It means to make unfair use of means and a practice of hiding money or making money from unfair means. This evil has a lot of dangers, it not only affects the individual life but only the society. It makes a country weak in every respect either it is political, social or economical.

Major causes behind corruption include inadequate laws, lack of transparency, ineffective law enforcement, lack of moral values, poverty, disregard for social values, lower income of public officials, lack of accountability. When laws are not strictly enforced, public officials are given petty amounts which do not allow them to fulfill their needs, moreover lack of moral values and disregard for social values, laws and customs are also the reasons of corruption. Lack when there is

Q. No. 4 (Page 2) no sense of accountability, people feel free to use the means according to their interest and they have no sense of fear in them. This practice of making unfair use of means have deep rooted effects for the country.

"Say no to Corruption."

Corruption is the mother of all other evils in the society, it makes a country economically weak disturbs the economic growth as a result ratio of poverty increases, due to this poverty people also began to commit crimes, and sense of security shatters, people no longer trust the public officials and began to protest against these evils which results in economic instability in the country which results in instability in education and educational institution can not continue to work in a smooth flow. During these protest people destroy the assets and this results in loss of natural national heritage.

Islam does not allow corruption, it strongly prohibits such practices, so people involved

Q. No. 4 (Page 3) in corruption are acting in deviance of Islamic teachings, they have no regard for Islamic teachings and moral values. It is also the dishonour to the motherland.

In order to eliminate this evil from society institutions should be strengthened, law enforcement should be ensured, efforts should be made to reduce poverty, salary structure of officials should be reviewed, accountability should be promoted, above all awareness should be raised among the masses, people should be given education and awareness about these evils so that they can raise their voice against it.

This evil can only be eliminated by introducing these reforms and taking such necessary measures. Our country can only prosper and progress when this evil is removed from the country.

There is a famous saying;

"World will not be destroyed by those who do evils but by those who watch it without doing anything."

Q. No. 5 (a)

Correction:

Goldilock used to live with her parents in a cabin near the forest. One day she decided to go for a walk, she strolled down the lane that leads to the forest and came across a cottage. Feeling intrigued she knocked at the door but no one answered.

Q. No. 5 (b)

Idiomatic Expressions

When our biggest client cancelled the contract, it was a Bolt from the blue with our backs against the wall, we felt backed in a corner but our sales team was able to cut the mustard and deliver a stellar presentation, securing a good deal. We breathed a sigh of relief and moved forward running like the wind grateful not to have miss the boat.

Q. No. 5 (c)

Narration:

The mother told her son that she had been noticing that he was not paying heed to her advice those days. She asked him if there was something bothering him. The son replied that nothing in particular and added that his exams were approaching and he had not prepared well. Mother said that whenever he needed her, she could help him in that regard.

Report

May 8, 2025.

To,X.Y.Z.,
City A.B.C.From,The Editor,
The News,
City A.B.C.Subject = Effects of Pollution on human health.

Introduction:

Pollution means impurity. Impurity or pollution of natural environment has become a challenging issue. Pollution had adverse effects on human health. This report will highlight the causes, types and effects of pollution on human health.

Report:

Pollution means impurity, when impure substances are released in the environment it leads to the environmental pollution, which is dangerous for human health. Causes of environmental pollution include, release of gases in the air, smoke from factories, vehicle exhaust, cutting

Q. No. 6 (Page 2) ~~down~~ of trees, increased use of machines etc all these are the causes of pollution.

Types of pollution include water pollution, land pollution, air pollution etc.

Water pollution is caused by the garbage, oils and soapy water that is released into the rivers and is a threat to marine life.

Air pollution results from the release of smoke and gases in the air which adversely affects human health and results in various diseases like respiratory problems and skin diseases etc.

Land pollution means the pollution created on land by throwing garbage and cutting the trees which results in impure atmosphere for living.

Pollution adversely affects human, animals, birds and land. It results in the loss of marine life and various human diseases that makes the life of a person miserable, and their treatment causes financial loss to the people.

Suggestion:

Solar energy should be utilized in an effective manner.

Q.No.6 (Page 3)

Trees should be planted.
Garbage and waste should be disposed off properly.
Awarxness should be provided to the people.

Conclusion:

Pollution is definately a serious issue but it can be tackled by taking the remedial measures so as to make our planet clean and live a healthy life.

Signed,
X.Y.Z.

Tense

She stays motionless, with gaze riveted upon her child, her husband enters the room, and without noticing her, goes to a table and begins to search among some papers which covers it.

Q.No.7 (Page 2)

A large rectangular area with horizontal ruling lines, intended for writing an answer. The area is bounded by a blue border on the left and right sides. There are 20 horizontal lines in total, including the top and bottom lines of the box. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the box.