Q. No. 2 Part (i) Title: Animal Right in Islam

Precis:-

Animal right are these days are having global spotlight due to growing concern. However, Islam teaches us to treat all living creatures with compassion, empathy, responsibility and respect. Before arrival of Islam, Arab people treat animals with cruelty and ruthlessness. Due to lack of awareness, people kill animals infront of other animals and if the horse rider dies, the horse was tied to his grave and was starved to death, his was a common tradition. They do not treat animals with kindness and empathy instead they treat them as sometime insignificant and unimportant. However, Islam taught everyone to treat all living things with love and respect. Many evidences are present in Holy Quran and Hadith about the right of living things and especially rights of animals.

Q. No. 2 Part (ii) Animal Rights addressed in Islam

Islam teaches to treat all living creatures with sense of compassion and responsibility. Islam emphasize on the importance of animal right and teaches everyone to respect animals and show empathy, love, kindness and care towards animals. Holy Prophet (P.B.U.H), who is a role model for everyone, also treated animals with kindness.

Q. No. 2 Part (iii) Common Practices of Treatment of Animals before Islam :-

Following were the common practices of treatment of animals before Islam :-

→ Animals were tied together and killed infront of other animals.

→ Animals were tied to the grave of their owner and starved to death if there owner dies.

→ Animal's different body parts were cut while they were still alive.

Q. No. 2 Part (iv) Ayahs in Quran dedicated to dealing with Animals :-

In the Holy Quran, there are more than 200 Ayahs dealing with the animals.

Three Surahs named after Animal/Insect:-

Following are the names of surahs named after Animals / Insect :-

→ Surah AL-Baqarah (The Cow)
→ Surah AL-Anaam (cattle)
→ Surah AL-Fil (elephant)
→ Surah AL-Naml (ants)

Q. No. 2 Part (v)

WORD	MEANING
→ Profound	great manner / great emphasis
→ Nomadic	the pratice of living in various areas / region from time to time and migrating from the area to another in a group.
→ treatment	way of dealing with others / behaviour
→ starved	causing death due to lack of food / not providing food
→ prevalent	: harsh / cruel

Q. No. 3 Part (a) Paraphrasing :-

The poet says that his daughter smiled at him and told him that she always knew about the meaning of the colour blue even though she was blind. In her life, even she could not see the colour itself even her eyes but she saw the colour blue with her heart. She saw the colour blue from the eyes of her heart.

Q. No. 3 Part (b) (i) Significance of Two Roads: The two road signifies two different paths or choices where one person can chose only one path and make a choice that better suits the individual.

(ii) Immagery: The poetic device in which the poet use his imagination and allows reader to imagine.

- Example in this stanza: Yellow Woods.

Yellow wood are not possible in reality. Hence, Immagery has been used.

(iii) Use of Visual Imagination:-

The visual image 'yellow woods' is used in the given stanza. The poet use the visual representation that the two roads diverge into yellow roads. The poet also writes that he stands on one path and see other path as much as he could and the road bents in undergrowth.

Q. No. 4 (a)

(i) May (Permission)
(ii) Can (Request)
(iii) Can (Ability)
(iv) Must (Obligation)
(v) Should (Suggestion)
(vi) Must (Obligation)

Q. No. 4 (b) (i) My teacher wanted that work to be done immediately.

(ii) This plant flowers yearly.

(iii) You should complete the work shortly.

(iv) The two old friend met each other accidently.

(v) He ran fastly.

(vi) She sang sweetly.

Q. No. 4 (c) Ali said that he was feeling unwell. He added that he had a severse headache. He requested the teacher to allow him to go home. He promised that he would complete my work later.

Q. No. 5 A DAY THAT CHANGED MY LIFE

One day in Winters, it was raining and I was passing by a grocery store. I was a women with two childrens standing under the roof of the store and they were looking very poor and hungry. It was really cold and I was going to home quickly but then I remembered my mom told me that, 'Even the small act of kindness is never wasted'. I immediately stopped and went inside the store and brought an umberella and some food for them. When I handed them these things, the woman's eye were filled with tears of gratitude and she simply ~~said~~ thanked me but that remained with me forever. After watching me, another man brought warm clothes for them. This made me believe that, 'kindness is Contagious'. I felt really proud of myself and felt inner peace. That day I promised myself to always act with kindness. As the saying goes, 'In the world where you can be anything, be kind'. That day my parent also appreciated my act and were really proud of me. Since that day, my life had been changed as well as my prespective of live. I believe that a small act of kindness can change alot and make world better. On that day, the woman and children were really happy and gratitude could be seen in their eyes.

MORAL:- Kindness cost nothing, yet means everything.

Q. No. 6

I wanted to prepare well for my exams therefore I made a proper timetable. Although the syllabus was lengthy, I tried to cover a little ~~sy~~ everyday. I studied hard because I wanted to get good marks. So I avoided distractions like mobile phones. but there were times when I felt tired. and, I remained myself that constant efforts always leads to succeed.

Q. No. 7 (Page 1)

DRUG ADDICTION

Drug addiction refers to a continous habit of being attached to drugs. It is a psychological situation in which the person becomes attached with Drugs and cannot function and live properly without drugs. It is a very threatning addiction which can significantly impact the individuals daily life as well as social life. It is very harmful for the human being to be addicted to Drugs. There are several consequences in the life of the individual addicted to drug as well as on the society.

Firstly, the drug addiction significantly cause harm to the physical and mental health of the person. It causes significant damage to the physical health by making the person physically weak and damaging the individuals physical strength and ability. The drug addiction causes the person to lose its senses and make them emotionally weak and leads them to various mental illness and disease. As the saying goes, "A healthy mind lives in a healthy body". If the bodys health would be damaged by the drugs, it would lead to mental problems.

Secondly, Drug addiction also leads to the economic instability and problems in the

Q. No. 7 (Page 2) managing the expenses of daily life essentials. As the drug addicted person uses almost all of the money on the drug, it makes the life difficult for the other family persons. which causes many problem in daily life expenses. Drug addiction also effects the social and personal relationships of the person, leading to disrespect, misunderstandings and family problems. The drug addicted person not only gains disrespect but it also causes the disrespect to their family members. This significantly effects the environment of society and community.

However, Drug addiction is mainly cause of lack of awarness and education. As we know that, 'Education is key to success'. Mostly people are drug addicted because they are not fully aware of harmful effects of Drug addiction. Hence, the government and elders should take initiatives for the spread of awareness of Drug addition which can help many and helps to get a better society. Drug Addiction awareness would significantly help and impact the society and individuals in positive way.

Consequently, Drug addiction have many negative impacts in society as well as individuals life such as physical and mental health damaged, economic instability, damaged to human relationships e.t.c. Howevers, its awareness and education can contribute to a better world and make a big impact.