Q. No. 2 Part (i)

Title : Animals Rights in Islam

Summary :

Animals rights are considering a great importance across the globe. Islam is most detailed way of life. It evokes the sense of compassion, love, diginity and respect for animals. Before the advent of Islam in pre-Islamic Arbia people used to be cruel on animals. Such as cutting their body parts, keeping them starving and killing other animals. There were some customs among nomadics. The advent of Islam changed these customs. and procted animal rights. There references from Hadith and Quran which are, Al Baqarah, Al Anaam, Al Nah and many more highlighting and emphasing ethical and well-treatment towards animals.

Q. No. 2 Part (ii)

⇒ Accourding to the passage animals have paramount importance. Being sentient-being they also feel paiu as human.

⇒ Therefore, animals should be treated well with, compassion, love, diginity and kindness.

⇒ Animals provide numerious benefits, in return we must not be cured toward them, but we should treat them with kindness.

Q. No. 2 Part (iii)

⇒ Pre-Islamic Arbia the animals were mistreated. People just understand them as property and wealth.

⇒ The cerruelty was common in nomadic areas. There were also norms which mistreated animals.

⇒ Such as, cutting body parts, mutilating, keeping starving and killing them in front of other animals. But Islam changed the system and bring animals rights, avoiding these cruel practices.

Q. No. 2 Part (iv)

There are more than (200) two hundred Ayahs in the Holy Quran highlighting and emphasing the guidness to deal with animals.

Three Surahs:

(i) Surat 2 (Al Baqarah) (The Cow)
(ii) Surat 6 (Al Anaam) (The Cattle)
(iii) Surat 07 (Al Nami) (The Ants)

Q. No. 2 Part (v)

Nomadic: ⇒ The people from background areas.

Starved: ⇒ The intense of hunger

Treatment: ⇒ The way of of dealing or acting.
⇒ The way to behave with.

Q. No. 3 Part (a)

Reference: This stanza is taken from the poem "blue" written by Brian A. emphasizes love for daughter.

Paraphrazing: The stanza evokes sense of love and diginity. She slighty moved her lips and said she already know what was the meaning of blue. Throughout her life she always imagined, and felt, with heart, given in heritage by her father.

Q. No. 3 Part (b)

(i) The two roads signify about the decision we make for our future career. And we can only choose only of them. And it is very difficult to choose the right road.

(ii) Imagery: The two roads, yellow wood, standing and looking through the roads where they bent in the undergrowth signifies the usage of Imagery in the stanza.

(iii) The visual image poet has used in the stanza is diverging of two roads in the wood and he is looking through them which to choose.

Q. No. 4 (a)

(i) Students can only leave the....

(ii) May I open the window....

(iii) I can solve the problem.

(iv) Employes must follow the company rules.

Q. No. 4 (b)

(i) The teacher wanted the work to be done ~~immediately~~ immediately.

(ii) This plant flowers ~~annully~~ annually.

(iv) The two old friends met each other ~~accidently~~ accidentally.

(v) He ran ~~swiftly~~ swiftly.

(vi) She sang ~~beautifully~~ beautifully.

Q. No. 4 (c) From Direct to Indirect:

~~A~~ Asad said that he was feeling unwell. He also added that he had a ~~serve~~ severe headache. He requested teacher to allow him to go home, he promised that he would complete his work later. after.

Q. No. 5

A brave act that I witnessed

Once upon a time I was going to meet my friend. It was evening, people were coming back from fields and farms. Some women were picking up the water toms. Everybody was busy, with his own work. In the form a cow, bulk and goats were waiting for feed. Suddenly, a bulk pushed a tied rope and be came free. It started to run surround the houses worrying and fearing the people. The bulk come in fight with people around them. But my friend Qasim handled the situation critically. He had enough courge that he pulled the rope with great force and controled the bulk rope in his hand. There was hustle and bustle of the people and other small animals. Now the bulk is in control. It caused many people to break their legs, arms and other body parts. My friend Qasim showed the bravery and critically handled the situation which saved many lives.

Q. No. 6

I wanted to prepare well for my exams so I made a proper timetable. because the syllabus was lengthy, I tried to cover a litle every day. I studed hard and I wanted to get good marks. Therefore, I avoided distraction like mobile phone. but there were times when I felt tired. Although, I reminded myself that constant effort always leads to succeed.

Q. No. 7 (Page 1)

Drug addiction

Drug addiction is one of the most vital concerning problem across the globle. Every country in the world has contributed in drug addiction. Mony people from foreign countries are suffering from misuse of drug.

Specialy the young generation is addicted mostly. Because, they usually start using drug watching their parents doing so, or to be added in the group of wandring friends. Mostly younger generation start as fun, joy and to be stress free.

Not only drugs like alcohol, wine are dangerous, bad also pain relieter, sleeping pills and other medicinial drugs cause great negative impact on the generation. People take drugs to relief pain, to be strees free and to overcome tension and dipression.

As time passes they increase their doeses to gain same level of relief. Gradually, it becomes very hard to quit these drugs. As a result, he loose his self-control and becomes engaged in further tension, depression, and anxiety.

Q. No. 7 (Page 2)

Consequently the victim forgets social, family and relative responsibilities. Sometimes, he may be in criminal condition. Because, his mental and Physical health suffers.

Therefore, an effective use of drugs is very curcial. Using the medicines in guidness of doctors prevents from risk of addiction.

Moreover, extracircular activities such as, playing outdoor games, performing meditation, yoga and walk assist in preventing from abuse drug addiction. Hence, performing these activities the victim would be free from misuse of drugs.